

Joint Trauma Informed Care & Be Connected Training

Learn how Be Connected and the Faith Community can strengthen support for our service members, veterans and their families.

This Joint Trauma Informed Care and Be Connected Training is tailored for faith leaders and community members who are eager to enhance their support for service members, veterans, and their families. Attendees will gain insights into how their faith community can play an even more impactful role in serving all those who serve. From understanding their unique needs to learning best practices in offering spiritual and emotional support, this gathering will equip attendees with the tools and knowledge necessary to make a meaningful difference.
